

Technical Bulletin

Framed Shutter Installation

Shutters are designed for decorative, not structural application. Due to the expansion and contraction of shutters with temperature variations, shutters should be installed only on the exterior siding surface. If it becomes necessary to surround or inset the shutters, a minimum clearance of 1/4 inch (6mm) along the side and 3/8 inch (10mm) at the top and bottom of the shutter is required.

